Itinerary

1st Day Enkhuizen (Embarkation) - Medemblik

Individual journey to Enkhuizen. Embarkation and check in on board from 2 pm (4 pm on May 4) close to the railway station near the beautiful centre of Enkhuizen. Once everyone has unpacked and settled in, the skipper joins the guests for an aperitif before giving a short briefing about the journey, details about the ship and relevant safety measures to be taken on board. After all the necessary safety instructions are given the ship will depart to your first destination of the week - Medemblik. After dinner your tour leaders will guide you through this historic town now known for its sailing culture.

2nd Day Medemblik (Roundtrip aprx. 28 or 40 km) Sailing: Medemblik – Den Oever – Texel

Your bikes will be fitted in the morning, and you will then set off on your first cycle tour. As on almost all cycling days on this trip, the guides split up and you can choose between a longer or shorter cycling stage. After the cycle tour, the route continues to Texel, the largest Dutch island in the North Sea. If the weather does not cooperate, an overnight stay in Den Oever may be necessary.

3rd Day Texel (Roundtrip aprx. 43 or 49 km)

The island of Texel – a real dream destination for cyclists – is known for its varied landscape and picturesque villages. Your guides will take you on a tour around the largest Dutch North Sea Island. On the way, you will visit the seal sanctuary “Ecomare”. While the foundation’s main task is to save birds and seals, it also aims to inform visitors from all over the world about the special features of the island and the local wildlife.

4th Day Texel – Terschelling (Sailing Day aprx. 5 – 6 h)

Today you can enjoy a longer sail to the island of Terschelling, weather and tide permitting. As you sail through Wadden Sea, keep a lookout for seals relaxing on the sandbanks. There is a good chance of spotting seals, which feel particularly at home here. During the sail, a bountiful lunch is served on board. In the afternoon, the ship arrives on Terschelling. The island is home to a number of picturesque villages situated between the polder and sand dunes that stretch along its 30 km- long-expanse. No dinner will be served on board today to allow you to explore the harbour of the beautiful island with its many nice restaurant and pubs.

5th Day Terschelling (Roundtrip aprx. 42 km) Sailing: Terschelling – Harlingen

While the previous day was all about sailing, today is all about cycling. Terschelling has plenty to offer its cycle tourists: nature and culture, 44 mi./70 km of cycling tracks and four beautiful villages. West Terschelling is the largest village on the island and has several lovely shops and pubs. The standout landmark on the island is the 400-year-old lighthouse “Brandaris” that can be seen from well off in the distance. The heathland of “Boschplaat” is also well worth exploring, a landscape dotted with mudflats, beaches and dunes. If you’re lucky, you may even spot ducks, black-winged stilts, large colonies of spoonbills and great black-backed gulls. After a long day of cycling, you can relax once more onboard the ship. In the late afternoon, the ship crosses the Wadden Sea to Harlingen, the most important harbour city in the province of Friesland.

6th Day Harlingen – Franeker – Makkum (aprx. 48 or 58 km)

Today's cycle tour starts after breakfast in Harlingen. Via Franeker, with its famous planetarium by Eise Eisinga, you cycle on through the wonderfully extensive Frisian countryside, dotted with small villages, to Makkum on the eastern shore of the IJsselmeer. If you want to take the long cycle tour, you will also come to Bolsward, one of the eleven Frisian towns.

7th Day Makkum – Stavoren (aprx. 32 or 49 km) Sail to Enkhuizen

From Makkum you cycle to Stavoren. The short route takes you via the old trading town of Hindeloopen. The first Frisian skating museum is also located here. The Dutch are a nation particularly fond of ice sports, which is impressively demonstrated in this museum. The long tour takes you along several lakes of the Frisian Lake district and reveals a landscape characterized by water worlds. From Stavoren, the ship sets course for Enkhuizen at the end of the day.

8th Day Enkhuizen (Disembarkation)

Disembarkation after breakfast until 9.30 am. A beautiful journey full of new experiences has come to an end. Individual journey home or extended stay.
