To the center of the world by bike and boat

Join us on a fascinating journey! On this Bike [&] Boat tour we explore both the Greek mainland as well as the impressive Ionian Islands. Along the way we get a first-hand experience of the scenic and cultural diversity in Greece as we travel by bike and on board the two-masted motor sailer, the Panagiota. The Ionian Islands show Greece at its greenest, unspoiled scenery and centuries of Venetian influence characterize this yet little-known archipelago. The glistening blue waters of the Ionian Sea, the mountainous landscape of Cephalonia, the bird-sanctuary island, Lefkas, and the small island of Paxos covered in olive groves all play part in a wonderfully relaxing vacation. Famous sites such as Delphi and Aegina are just some of the highlights of the tour. The passage through the Corinth Canal is sure to become an unforgettable memory.

Corfu - Athens

1st Day Corfu/Corfu city (Embarkation)

Individual arrival by plane and subsequent transfer to the ship. It is possible to check in on the Panagiota from 2 pm onwards. Dinner on board and overnight stay on Corfu.

2nd Day Paxos Island (aprx. 15 mi./23 km)

Cast off! In the morning we sail to Paxos, the smallest of the seven Ionian Islands. This tiny island is so densely covered in olive trees the whole island seems to glisten a wonderful silver green colour. Our morning tour leads us around the whole island. There is plenty of time to enjoy a swim in the sea at one of the many beaches. Later, we can enjoy the evening in a cosy tavern in the unique natural harbour of Gaios! Overnight stay on Paxos.

3rd Day Lefkas town - Nidri (aprx. 19 mi./30 km)

Our day begins with a longer sail to the town of Lefkas. During the crossing we pass by the original swing bridge which connects the island of Lefkas to the Greek mainland. Today's tour leads us across the island's fascinating mountain landscape to the lively harbour of Nidri. The island of Skorpios, once the private haven of shipping magnate Aristotle Socrates Onassis, can be seen from our mooring. The night is spent in Nidri.

4th Day Ithaca Island - Mesolongi (aprx. 12 mi./20 km)

Early in the morning we cruise to the island of Ithaca for our day's bike tour. This hilly island with its spectacular scenery is said to have been home of the mythical king Odysseus. During the ride we get to enjoy the special character of the Ionian Islands off beaten tourist track: gnarled olive trees, crystal clear water and friendly islanders – time appears to stand still on Ithaca. We then board the boat once more for a longer sail to Mesolongi in the Corinthian Gulf, where we spend the night.

5th Day Mesolongi - Delphi - Galaxidi (bus tour)

A transfer bus will pick you up in the morning to take you to the medieval town of Nafpaktos. There you can take a short stroll through the enchanting old town with its Venetian harbour and fortifications. Afterwards, the journey continues by bringing us to the famous site of Delphi at the foot of the Parnassos Mountains. In Delphi, the god of light, Apollo, was once worshipped and the oracle was consulted. The many beautiful temples & treasure houses, the well-preserved theatre & stadium, but particularly the breath-taking hillside location of the sanctuary make a visit to the Delphi an unforgettable experience. Afterwards, your transfer bus takes us to the picturesque port of Galaxidi, where we spend the night. For those would be interested, one can bike to a nearby beach in the afternoon and enjoy a swim in the sea! Overnight stay in Galaxidi.

6th Day Galaxidi - Corinth Canal - Aegina Island (aprx. 12 mi./20 km)

Today we lift anchor early and the journey continues towards the Isthmus of Corinth. The impressive passage through the Corinth Canal, which was completed in 1893 and whose construction was already planned by Julius Caesar, is one of the absolute highlights of this trip. The passage is 6.3 km long, 24 meters wide and 8 meters deep and it connects the Aegean Sea with the Gulf of Corinth. It saves passengers from the nearly 400 km long trip around the Peloponnese. From the Saronic Gulf, we set course for the island of Aegina. In the afternoon, we enjoy a coastal bike tour to the quaint fishing port of Perdika. In the evening, the old town of Aegina entices visitors to take an extended stroll.

7th Day Aegina Island – Piraeus/Marina Zeas (aprx. 22 mi./35 km)

The island of Aegina is also known beyond its borders for its pistachios. In the morning, our last bike ride from the island's capital take us past the Monastery of Saint Nektarios and to the well-preserved Temple of Aphaia, perched high above the blue sea. Our ship waits for us in the town of Aegina for our last crossing to Athens/Piraeus where we round off our Greek adventure with a final cozy dinner on board.

8th Day Athens/Piraeus (Disembarkation)

After breakfast check-out and individual return home or extended stay in Athens.

Panagiota

The M/S Panagiota is a lovingly restored motor sailor and was originally built in the shape of a traditional Greek caique. With a warm, 'Welcome on Board', the crew greet the arriving guests.

A splendid teak wood deck, a cozy saloon with stained glass windows, comfortable seating areas throughout the ship and sunning mats on both of the sun decks provide a true sense of familiarity and home.

Six of the charming cabins are located below deck and four above deck. They are named after popular Greek islands and are furnished functionally and are incredibly comfortable. The sea can be accessed via the swimming ladder, lowered into the sea when anchored in a secluded bay. The friendly and experienced crew has worked together for many years and is a well-coordinated team who will provide you with a truly care-free time on board.

Arrival

Port of Embarkation Athens (Piraeus/Marina Zeas)

The embarkation harbour varies on this tour between Marina Zeas, part of the Athens Piraeus harbour, and the ports on Corfu, depending what direction the tour is going on a specific week.

You are welcome to check in on board from 2 pm onwards on embarkation day.

If you arrive without a pre-booked transfer and have difficulty finding the boat, please call your local tour guide (number listed in travel documents).

Ports on Corfu Island

About Corfu city: Exactly where the ship will be moored is always decided the evening before your journey. On the day of embarkation, you will find your boat either in the Corfu yard port Nauk below the Old Fortress or in the Corfu city ferry port, in the Café Giali yard port or in Marina Gouvia (about 10 km north of Corfu city).

Please call our tour guide if you did not book a transfer. They will tell you, where to find your ship: +306940428842.

Arrival by airplane

When booking flights please be aware that your tour will either start in Athens and end in Corfu or vice-versa. Please check your booking confirmation to check at which harbour your booked tour begins. We recommend booking a 'multi-stop' flight.

Corfu is only 5 km away from Corfu Airport \(CFU\).

Piraeus is only 15 mi./25 km away from Athens Airport named El. Venizelos Airport \(ATH\).

From the Airport to the harbour

Transfer

Exclusive airport transfers between the airport or a hotel and the harbour are available on request. Prices can be found under "additional bookable services". If you would like an exclusive airport transfer, please contact our office by email or phone:
