Blue and white island dreams in the Greek Aegean

Our Islandhopping trip Cyclades [&] Saronic Islands let you experience the diversity of Greece in an impressive way: The Cyclades Islands was the cradle of the first European civilisation 5,000 years ago. Here we also see a truly authentic side of Greece: Gleaming white cube houses with blue shutters and labyrinth-like alleys dominate the architectural character of the islands' villages and towns. Along the mostly ragged coastlines there are impressive geological formations, turquoise-blue sea, and fantastic sand beaches.

Experience Greece from its greenest side on the Saronic Islands. Learn about the Greek Liberation Struggle between 1821 and 1830 without which Greece would not be as we know it today. Experience the fascinating symbiosis of antiquity and modern times by E-Bike [&] Boat and delight in the authentic beauty of the Greek Aegean.

TO NOTE: The Cyclades are one of the most wind-prone regions of Greece, which frequently affects the itinerary of this tour. More information can be found under "Things to Note."

Itinerary

1st Day Athens(Embarkation)

Individual journey to Athens. Check-in on the ship is possible from 4 pm onwards. Dinner on board and overnight stay in Athens.

2nd Day Kythnos Island(aprx. 15 mi./25 km)

Early in the morning we sail to Kythnos Island, famous for its cheese and honey since the antiquity. We begin our first cycling tour in the harbour of Merichas and head towards the island's capital, Chora. Along the way we can enjoy wonderful, scenic views of the coastline. Chora is a lovely town, situated on a high plateau. The town's alleys are decorated with painted flowers and geometric patterns. We continue on to the picturesque village of Driopida before returning to Merichas, where we can spend the evening in one of the cosy tavernas.

3rd Day Seriphos Island(aprx. 18.5 mi./30 km)

In the morning, our boat takes us to Seriphos, a small island far off the beaten tourist track. The island is characterised by deep valleys, countless bays and coves, and numerous beautiful sandy beaches. From the harbour town of Livadi, we cycle along a serpentine road to the island's main town of Seriphos, whose cube form houses, nestled into landscape, stretch along the mountain ridge high above the sea. From Seriphos, we continue on through untouched landscape to the Byzantine monastery of the Archangel Michael. We then return to Livadi along a panoramic road on the East coast. In the afternoon the ship takes us to Syros, where we can stroll through the breathtaking old town and round off the day in one of the numerous cafes on the spacious harbour promenade.

4th Day Syros Island(aprx. 18.5 mi./30 km)

The town of Ermoupolis on Syros is the capital town of the Cyclades and offers an unforgettable view upon arrival: The town which is built on two hills is different from the other Cycladic towns. Pastel coloured houses, many of which have classical facades dominate the townscape. We cycle along the coast of Syros which is full of bays and coves along the entire southern half of the island to the beautiful beach of Galissas and then past the convent of Saint Barbara back to Ermoupolis. In the afternoon we continue by boat to the island of Kea.

5th Day Kea Island(aprx. 15 mi./25 km)

Our starting point for exploring the northwestern-most inhabited Cycladic island is the beautiful natural harbour of Korissia. From here we climb up to the island's capital Ioulis before continuing on to the white sand Oztias Beach where we enjoy a refreshing swim stop. Afterwards, we cycle back to Korissia and then sail to Poros in the Saronic Gulf in the afternoon. The harbour town of Poros is truly spectacular with its iconic clock tower soaring above the rest of the town. Poros is the perfect place to enjoy a relaxing evening and get lost in the authentic Greek island atmosphere.

6th Day Poros Island(aprx. 15 mi./25 km)

We start our day with a bike tour from Poros to the Zoodochos Pigis monestary, which dates back to the 18th century. We cycle on and almost completely circle the entire island, which in ancient times was dedicated to the sea god, Poseidon. Shortly before the end of the tour, we arrive at Russian Bay, a sandy beach with turquoise blue waters, the perfect place for a relaxing swim! Once back in Poros, we board the boat and enjoy a delicious midday meal as we cruise to Aegina.

7th Day Island Aegina(aprx. 22 mi./35 km)

The island of Aegina is known far beyond the Greek borders for its incredible pistachio nuts! Today's bike tour takes us up to the sanctuary of Aphaia, towering high above the azure blue of the sea. The incredibly well-preserved temple is located on the only point on the island where the Aegean Sea can be seen on both sides. On our way back to the boat, we cycle across the middle of the island past the monastery of Nektarios all the way to the town of Aegina. Here we board the boat for our last cruise back to Athen. The last evening on board concludes with a communal dinner and last get-together in a cosy atmosphere with crew, fellow travellers, and tour guides.

8th Day Athens(Disembarkation)

After breakfast check-out and individual return home or extended stay in Athens.

Arrival

Ports of Embarkation in Athens

Please be aware that this trip is offered on both the ship Erato and the ship Thalassa.

The embarkation and disembarkation ports vary depending on the ship.

The ship Erato departs from the Marina Alimos harbor, located in the Athens suburb of Palaia Faliro. The ship Thalassa, on the other hand, departs from the Marina Zeas harbor, which is part of the Athens port of Piraeus.

Port of Embarkation Erato: Marina Alimos

For our ship Erato the port of embarkation is Marina Alimos, which is a part of the Athens suburb of Palaia Faliro. Usually the ship will dock here at Pier E.

You can check in on board from 4pm on embarkation day.

If you arrive without a pre-booked transfer with us and have difficulty finding your ship, please call your local tour guide (number provided in your travel documents).

Port of Embarkation Thalassa: Marina Zeas/Piraeus

For our ship Thalassa the port of embarkation is Marina Zeas, which is a part of the Athens port of Piraeus.

The exact berth is always decided on the eve of your trip. Usually your ship will dock here at Pier A (long pier towards the lighthouse) or at Pier L (below Plateia Alexandras at the Olympiacos Piraeus office).

You can check in on board from 4pm on the day of embarkation.

Arrival by airplane

A flight is the fastest, easiest and cheapest way to get to Greece. Piraeus, your port of embarkation is only 15 mi./25 km away from Athens Airport named El. Venizelos Airport \(ATH\).

Please choose an outbound flight departing in the afternoon to ensure a stress-free journey home.

From the Airport to the harbour

Transfer

Exclusive airport transfers between Athens Airport or a hotel in Athens city and the boat are available on request. Prices can be found under “additional bookable services”.

If you would like an exclusive airport transfer, please contact our office by email or phone:

Contact us

Taxi

You are of course welcome to take a taxi or bus from the airport to the harbour. Should you choose to do so, please insist that the driver turns on the taximeter to avoid unpleasant surprises regarding the fare.
